PROGRAM GUIDE NUMBER 102RADIO STATION KRAB

December 3 - 16, 1966

LAdybag 25111

THIS PROGRAM GUIDE IS ONE OF A SEEMINGLY ENDLESS flood sent to those listeners who feel that our program merit some support. KRAB has no commercials, but sends out a plethora of song and dance and talk which is sometimes aesthetic and often controversial. Subscribers send us $20 (regular), $12 (minimum), and $6 (nine months student & retired).

In return, we send them this mess, our love, and know they are keeping us on the air, pay-light bill, and getting a tax deducti-

MORNING PROGRAM: because of the unfortunate departure of Duke Morning Man to La Jolla all the god-forsaken places, the Early Morning Program will cease unless some benefactor will contribute $400 a month so he can commute by jet from the wilds. Beginning December 5, we will be on the air between 9:30 and 10 in the morning, with repeats being---as usual---from 10 to 1. On Saturdays and Sundays we will continue with morning programs from ten to one with the commentary being rebroadcast at around 12:30. (R) means Repeated the following morning.

WHAT THE GREAT SOCIETY NEEDS IS ABOUT A HUNDRED THOUSAND FARINELLIS

Harrison and Bob and I were discussing the deplorable lack of castrati in contemporary American life, and the adverse effect on the Baroque Revival. Harrison explained that in the 18th Century, if you were young, male, with a reasonably good voice, your family could treat you to a quick Snip and thus have you assured a life-long career singing Haydn, Gluck, or Mozart. Bob said that he wondered how many members of middle-class America would willingly subject their children to such fixing-up for the mere sake of a life-time of security. He thought a minute, and then said that (on the other hand) he refused to be prejudiced about the
